

Object of CLASSIC: “The purpose of CLASSIC is to facilitate access to justice to low income members of the community (with particular attention to the needs of Aboriginal people and other historically disadvantaged groups) through a legal clinic that meets the needs of the community. CLASSIC also provides students with clinical experience, new insights into the social reality of the law, and fosters ethics of social justice and cultural understanding.” – From CLASSIC’s Constitution and Bylaws, as adopted by the Members of CLASSIC at the January 7, 2008, Annual General Meeting.
